The insecurity, the wonder, the intensity of meeting someone who understands you after being alone for a long time. I don't think a summary of the story will tell you anything about it, so I won't try. But it is very thoughtfully crafted | About the Author |

Vatsal Surti writes about the interconnections of humans. He wrote his first novel, 20, at the age of 20. His other works include a novella, To Desire, and a collection of short stories and prose poems, On Love.

'It's really hitting me where I live. Prose poetry about what it feels like to be young and have the whole world caught inside your throat.' - Lena Dunham, creator and star of the Emmy-winning HBO series Girls
